

11
Ibid Gen. Galt & Co. 2nd Regt
June 2nd 1865

Sgt. Thomas A. Nixon

I deem it a duty and pleasure
to give to you my thanks for the gallant manner
in which you have done your duty, while under my command.

In all the battles during the campaign, which ended in the surrender of Lee's Army, you have shown bravery and courage rarely equalled.

In the last battle at Appomattox
Court House, you charged ahead of the line and was in the extreme advance, when the Army surrendered.

You also have the honor of firing the last shot into the enemy, which we have had in our front for the last four years.

For these gallant deeds I thank you as Commanding Officer of the 24th A. I. R.

G. W. C. Lee
Major U. S. A.

June 2nd, 1865

Sgt. Thomas A. Nixon

I deem it a duty and pleasure
to give to you my thanks for the gallant manner
in which you have done your duty while under
my command.

In all the battles during the campaign which ended in the surrender of Lee's army, you have shown bravery and coolness rarely equaled. In the last battle of Appomattox Court House you charged ahead of the line and was in the extreme advance when the army surrendered.

You also have the honor of firing the last shot into the enemy, which we have had in our front for the last four years.

For the gallant deeds I thank you as Commanding officer of the 24th A.I.L.L.

J. W. Cooley

\(back\)